BARCADE GAMES | BEYOND BIG DUCK

Hey, we've all been there—forced off the couch by your dumb ole social life, trapped out boozing with all your stupid IRL friends, when all of a sudden, you're struck by a flare-up of Pac-Man Fever and all they've got is Golden Tee. For all those times when Peggle just won't cut it, here's a run-down of best spots in Boston for joystick junkies to get their fix.

1 | Lanes & Games

What charmingly sketchy bowling alley would be complete without arcade games, air hockey, pinball and other things not bowling? 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge. 617.876.5533. [lanesgames.com]

2 | Model Cafe

Their Galaga machine may have seen one spilled PBR too many, but you can still put in a couple rounds of pinball while basking in second-hand coolness. [7 N Beacon St., Allston. 617.254.9365]

3 | T.C.'s Lounge

Yes, that's a crane machine. Yes, it's full of porn. No, we can't break a fifty. Go get your wrist workout at the sports games, horn-ball. [1 Haviland St., Boston. 617.247.8109]

4 | Flattop Johnny's

Not getting the hang of the pool hustle? Johnny's has all you need to get started on the pinball racket. PS: Don't gamble on pinball, kids. 1 Kendall Sq., Cambridge. 617.494.9565. [flattopjohnnys.com]

5 | Beacon Hill Pub

Impress them with your Chuck E. Cheese-honed basketball skills, or show off the shakeweight at the punching bag? And if that fails, they've got Terminator. [149 Charles St., Boston. 617.625.7100.]

6 | The Shannon Tavern

Pac-Man, bubble hockey, and enough Irish gravitas to excuse your drinking there at 10 in the morning. Plu—yeah, bubble hockey. It's a thing. [558 East Third St., Boston. 617.269.9460]
